

The School District of Lee County Bullying/Harassment Reporting Form

This form should be used to report a possible case of bullying or harassment and turned in to school administration.

What is Bullying?

Bullying is when someone is being hurt repeatedly and on purpose by words or actions and has a hard time defending or stopping what is happening to them.

What is Harassment?

Harassment is any threatening, insulting, or humiliating conduct directed toward a student or school employee.

The following are types of bullying and harassing behavior:

- Physical – hitting, pushing, spitting, or stalking.
- Verbal – name calling, teasing, making insulting remarks, threatening, disrespecting or demeaning a person's race, disability, appearance, or sexual orientation.
- Emotional – spreading rumors, isolating a person from a peer group through hurtful gossip.
- Sexual – unwanted sexual advances or actions intended to make the other person uncomfortable, embarrassed, or humiliated, and might include obscenities or gestures, exposure, or physical contact.
- Cyber Bullying – using the internet, interactive and digital technologies or cellphone to communicate words, images or language to willfully harm a person in the manner described above.

In order to be considered bullying, the behavior must meet three criteria:

- Repeated – bullying behaviors or actions happen more than once.
- Intentional – bullying behaviors or actions that occur without provocation.
- Power Imbalance – students who display bullying behaviors use their power – such as physical strength, access to embarrassing information, or popularity – to control or harm others.

To file a written complaint of a possible case of bullying and harassment, complete the other side of this form. Please be sure to include any information and evidence that supports the bullying/harassing behavior and submit the form to school administration.

The role of Lee County Schools is to provide a safe and healthy learning environment for all students. When a possible case of bullying and harassment has been reported, the school will follow up and a formal investigation will be conducted upon receipt of a formal complaint. Regardless of the investigative outcome, the school will ensure that students are provided appropriate interventions that support the safety and wellbeing of all students.
