OVERVIEW

- The 2021-22 fafsa.gov preview presentation provides screenshots that financial aid professionals, mentors, and counselors can use as a guide for the 2021-22 fafsa.gov application. The screenshots and information provided can be used to create/modify presentations for professional trainings and high school nights.
- The screenshots are intended to show the majority of the questions displayed in fafsa.gov; however, most applicants and/or parents are unlikely to need to answer all of the questions when completing their application.
- The screenshots used in this presentation shows examples of what fafsa.gov will look like.

OVERVIEW (CONTINUED, PART 1)

- The 2021-22 version of fafsa.gov will be available for applicants to use on October 1, 2020.
- The 2021-22 fafsa.gov web demonstration site will be available on September 27, 2020.

OVERVIEW (CONTINUED, PART 2)

- The following are key features of fafsa.gov:
 - Students and parents may begin, complete, and submit a new or renewal FAFSA form for the 2021–22 FAFSA® form processing cycle.
 - Students and parents who are eligible may use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (IRS DRT) to electronically transfer federal tax return information into a FAFSA form.
 - Students and parents may be eligible to transfer their FAFSA information into their state aid application. Participating states include Iowa, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Vermont.
 - Parents that have multiple students who need to file an application may be eligible to transfer their FAFSA information into a new application from the original student’s confirmation page.
 - Students will be able to view additional information about the schools they selected on their FAFSA form for easy comparison of schools.
 - Students and parents have the ability to correct or update an application once it’s been processed.
 - Students and parents can save an application from fafsa.gov and resume where they left off on the mobile app and vice versa.

Changes to Your Family's Financial Situation

If your or your family's financial situation has changed significantly from what is reflected on your federal income tax return (for example, if you've lost a job or otherwise experienced a drop in income), you may be eligible to have your financial aid adjusted. Complete the FAFSA questions as instructed on the application (including the transfer of tax return and income information), submit your FAFSA form, then contact the school you plan to attend to discuss how your current financial situation has changed. Note that the school's decision is final and cannot be appealed to the U.S. Department of Education. Visit StudentAid.gov/coronavirus for more information.

FAFSA® Deadlines

Many states and colleges set priority deadlines by which you must submit the FAFSA form to be considered for the aid programs they administer.

There is also a federal deadline each academic year.

Select your state of legal residence and the school year for which you're applying for federal student aid.

Applying is faster and easier with the IRS DRT!

Based on your responses, we recommend that you transfer your information from the IRS into this FAFSA. The IRS Data Retrieval Tool allows users to link to the IRS Web site and securely transfer original IRS tax return information into their FAFSA.

For your protection, your tax return information will not display on the IRS Web site or on the FAFSA.

If you use the IRS DRT, you may not have to provide additional IRS documentation later to qualify for federal student aid.

Congratulations, FIRST! Your FAFSA was successfully submitted to Federal Student Aid.

What Happens Next

- You will receive an e-mail version of this page.
- In 3-5 business days, you will receive an e-mail notifying you that your FAFSA was processed.
- Your FAFSA information will be made available to your school(s), and they will use it to determine the aid you may be eligible to receive.
- Your school(s) will contact you if they need more information or when they are ready to discuss your financial aid award.
- If you have questions about your financial aid package, contact your school(s).

School(s) on your FAFSA:

School Name	Graduation Rate	Retention Rate	Transfer Rate	Additional Information from CollegeScorecard
UNIVERSITY OF IOWA	73%	87%	21%	NA
COLUMBIA COLLEGE	28%	63%	0%	NA

Eligibility Information

Estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) = 005926

The EFC is a measure of how much you can contribute to the cost of your education. Schools use your EFC to determine your federal student aid eligibility.

The EFC is not how much aid you will receive or how much you have to pay for college.

Your parent(s) indicated that they had filed an IRS tax return when they provided their financial information and it appears that they were eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, which allows them to transfer their IRS tax return information directly into your FAFSA. The benefit of using the tool is that it's the easiest way to provide accurate tax information, and it also eliminates the need for providing a copy of your parents' tax return to the financial aid office at your college. Once your FAFSA has been processed, you can return to FAFSA on the Web and your parent(s) can use the tool to transfer their tax information.

Based on the eligibility criteria, you may be eligible for the following:

Direct Stafford Loan Estimate - $5,500.00
You may also be eligible to receive other federal, state, or institutional grants, scholarships, and/or work-study.

In addition, you should learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

> Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System \(NSLDS\) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Total Amount of Loans Outstanding -
FFEL (Bank Loans) and/or Direct Loans:	Total Principal Balance	Remaining Amount to be Disbursed	Total
Subsidized Loans:	$1,000	N/A	$777,777
Unsubsidized Loans:	N/A	N/A	$8,888
Combined Loans:	N/A	N/A	$99,999
Unallocated Consolidation Loans:	N/A		$9,000
Federal Perkins Loan Amounts:
Total Outstanding Principal Balance:	$4,000
2021-2022 Loan Amount:	$5,000

TEACH Grants Converted to Direct Loans:
Unsubsidized Loans:	N/A		$9,000

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1845-0001. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 5 to 10 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. The obligation to respond to this collection is voluntary. If you have comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, please contact the Federal Student Aid Information Center, P.O. Box 84, Washington, D.C. 20044 directly.

We may request additional information from you to process your application more efficiently. We will collect this additional information only as needed and on a voluntary basis.

By answering questions 101a through 101t, and signing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, you give permission to the U.S. Department of Education to provide information from your application to the college(s) you entered. You also agree that such information is deemed to incorporate by reference the certification statement on the sign and submit page of the financial aid application. The certification statement can be viewed at StudentAid.gov/2122/help/certification-statement.

WARNING: If you are convicted of drug distribution or possession for an offense that occurred while you were receiving Title IV aid, your eligibility for Title IV student financial aid is subject to suspension or termination. If your drug conviction status changes at any time during the 2021-2022 award year, you must update your answer to the drug conviction affecting eligibility question.

MyStudentData Download

The MyStudentData Download function allows you to download a portion of your FAFSA information in a simple, machine-readable file (CSV format) that you can share – at your own discretion – with third parties that develop helpful consumer tools.

The MyStudentData Download function is separate from the process of applying for financial aid and is completely optional. The schools you have listed on your FAFSA will receive your financial aid information directly and do not need a copy of your MyStudentData file.

WARNING: The MyStudentData Download file contains your personal information, including your name and any financial information reported on your FAFSA. Do not leave this file on a public computer or in an unsecured location.

For more information about the MyStudentData Download functionality, go to MyStudentData.

Special Circumstances Qualifications

STUDENT INFORMATION

You may still be eligible for some type of federal student aid without providing parent information. Please read through the following options carefully.

Special Circumstances Option

You must contact the financial aid administrator at the college you plan to attend if you believe that you have a special circumstance that should be considered in determining your eligibility for federal student aid. However, not all situations are considered a special circumstance. For example, the following situations would not be considered as a special circumstance on their own:

- You do not live with your parents.
- Your parents don't provide you with financial support.
- Your parents refuse to contribute to your college expenses.
- Your parents don't claim you as a dependent on their income tax return.
- Your parents do not want to provide their information on your FAFSA.

Unsubsidized Loan Option

If you do not meet a requirement for a special circumstance and still choose to continue your application without providing parent information, you will only be considered for an Unsubsidized Loan. To request consideration for an Unsubsidized Loan, you must contact the financial aid administrator at the college you plan to attend.

Choose the appropriate option below based on your circumstances. ?

- I will provide information about my parent(s)
- I have a special circumstance and am unable to provide information about my parent(s)
- I do not have a special circumstance, and am submitting my FAFSA without parent information to apply for an unsubsidized loan only

Homeless or at Risk of Being Homeless

Student Demographics ✓ School Selection ✓ Dependency Status ✎ Parent Demographics Parent Financials Student Financials Sign & Submit Confirmation

STUDENT INFORMATION

i Important: You indicated that you are homeless or at risk of being homeless, and you answered "none of the above" when presented with the specific homeless questions. Read on for more information.

Homeless or at Risk of Being Homeless

Your financial aid administrator can decide that you meet both of the following conditions necessary to be considered homeless and, therefore, do not need to provide parental information:

- You are homeless, or self-supporting and at risk of being homeless. Homeless means you are lacking fixed, regular and adequate housing, which includes living in shelters, parks, motels, hotels, public spaces, camping grounds, cars, abandoned buildings, or temporarily living with other people because you had nowhere else to go. Also, if you are living in any of these situations and fleeing an abusive parent, you may be considered homeless even if your parent would otherwise provide a place to live; and
- You are unaccompanied, which means you are not living in the physical custody of your parent or guardian.

If you believe that you meet these conditions and would like to follow up with the financial aid administrator at the college you plan to attend, click Next to continue.
